The history of Zoos

People have always wanted to know more about animals. Very many years ago, the Chinese Emperor made the first Zoo in his house. His people caught a lot of wild animals and the Emperor began to show them to his guests. The first European Zoo opened its doors to people in Paris in 1793. The Zoo was so popular, that other countries started to open Zoos too.

The first Russian Zoo was in Moscow. The Moscow Zoo started to show animals to people in 1864. The first collection of animals was not big, the Zoo had 200 wild animals and 100 pets. The Russian Emperor and his relatives presented some animals to the first zoo – an elephant, a zebra and other wild African animals. They also gave the Zoo money. Russian zoologists bought wild animals from other zoos or caught them in different parts of the world and brought them to Moscow.

Today there are a lot of animals in the Moscow Zoo. The Zoo shows the animals to people, protects rare animals and teaches people to love animals.

51. The first Zoo was in the house of the Chinese Emperor.
52. The first European Zoo was in Great Britain.
53. The Moscow Zoo was opened in the XXI century.
54. The relatives of the Russian Emperor gave the animals to the first zoo as presents.
